Meaning 'dearest one' in Sanskrit, Soneva Jani is a tropical jewel comprising pure white beaches, picture-perfect palm trees and dense tropical vegetation. The resort is built on the island of Medhufaru and its surrounding, four smaller islands in the middle of a turquoise lagoon paradise.

Arrive by private seaplane from the international airport in Male – a 35-minute trip over the string-of-pearl islands that make up the Maldives, where gleaming ivory sands contrast with the turquoise blue waters of the Indian Ocean.

Fill your days with yoga; bicycling along the island trails to the Eco Centre; discovering the lagoon's marine life on a dolphin cruise; or enjoying a Robinson Crusoe picnic.
